Recommended Reading Suggestions

To see the newest items we have added to our Children’s collection, you can visit our online catalog.

ALA has a variety of book lists for all ages and stages. They have lists if you’re looking for award winners (Caldecott, Newbery, or others), books about diversity, bilingual books, or just about any other topic.

Scholastic Guided Reading Levels can be confusing, but their website offers great recommendations for both fiction and nonfiction.

The K-12 Reading List has recommended books by age/grade as well as magazines.

We Are Teachers offers a variety of resources for teachers. They offer multiple lists of recommended books by grade level.

* Please note: With the exception of the MHLS online catalog, the Pleasant Valley Library has no affiliation with any of the websites listed and is not responsible for any information listed within them.